DISTANCE LEARNING

Translate cutting-edge research from developments in instructional design and technology into approachable, cross-disciplinary resources. Provide new insights into complexities, challenges, and implications for pedagogy and practice.

POTENTIAL TOPICS

• Preparing online educators – what are we teaching in our programs and why?
• Quality measures in distance learning – what are they, what are they based on, what are their advantages/disadvantages?
• Transitioning to online instruction

EMERGING LEARNING TECHNOLOGIES

Translate cutting-edge research from developments in instructional design and technology into approachable, cross-disciplinary resources. Provide new insights into complexities, challenges, and implications for pedagogy and practice.

POTENTIAL TOPICS

• Technologies transforming learning in different contexts (medical, military, K12, higher ed, continuing)
• Ethical & privacy dilemmas with using emerging technologies
• Interdisciplinary research trends with emerging technologies

Visit http://sites.google.com/view/ldtseries to submit a book proposal. For inquiries, contact a co-editor: Linda L. Campion | campionll6@ecu.edu, Cindy S. York | cindy.york@gmail.com, or Tonia A. Dousay | tonia@uidaho.edu.
